Solutions Architect On-Demand

UP TO ONE HOUR OF CERTIFIED AWS EXPERTISE FOR FREE

Managing a robust and efficient cloud environment is a challenging job—especially in the face of a rapidly changing technology landscape and competing priorities for your time. That's why we offer one full hour to talk with an Amazon Web Services (AWS) Certified Solutions Architect. We know that an hour with an expert can save you countless hours in return, by fast-tracking you through discovery and research and giving you the confidence and clarity of an expert's insight.

No matter what your specific cloud question is, our team of AWS Certified Solutions Architects is here to help, at no charge and with no strings attached. We can help you clarify your priorities, sort through technical challenges, and get you pointed in the right direction.

THE BENEFITS

Assess Migration Readiness.

Gain insight into what a migration to AWS would look like and how you can streamline the process.

Validate Project Plans.

Before launching a major initiative, get an expert second opinion on your strategy, plans, and potential pitfalls.

Identify Savings Opportunities.

Get a gut-check on your cloud costs and ROI and identify areas that warrant further investigation to drive savings.

Get FREE Expertise.

No matter what cloud or devops question is on your mind, we're here to help you get it untangled and get you back on track.
